

Misión

Inglés

To train creative and innovative citizens with opportunities, from a pedagogical model based on the principles of affection, joy and freedom and an institutional talent that appropriates the vocation of service and leadership to build a project and sense of life in children, adolescents and young people in habitability on the street, at risk of inhabiting it or in conditions of social fragility of the City.